

Grade Placement Chart

The British Columbia graduation program is normally three years (grades 10 to 12). Students who have completed grade 10 in their home country can complete the graduation requirements with a minimum of two additional school years. Students who require more improvement in their English level may require summer school or additional semesters. Only students transferring from a Canadian school can be considered for grade 12 enrolment. Grade 12 transfer students must have their graduation requirements reviewed and approved by a New Westminster Secondary School counsellor.
